the highest recognition that it is possible for a man in his business to have—promotion for merit to the head of the finest fire-fighting brigade on earth. He began at the bottom.

Read what he says of the medicine that has also enabled thousands of other men and women to achieve what by intelligence and ambition they were cut out to do.

And bear in mind that what Paine's Celery Compound has done in the case of Marshal Musham, and for thousands of others who have voluntarily expressed their gratitude in similar words, it will do with unvarying certainty in the case of every person whose nervous system, from whatever cause, begins to show the effects of disease, and whose symptoms manifest themselves in the various distressing ways that are so familiar to every reader.

"Gentlemen:—Your remedy, Paine's Celery Compound, is all that you claim for it, and is certainly a boon to humanity. ASHBY VERDICT SATISFACTORY.

Noble Conduct of Marye Family Greatly Admired—Mass Meeting.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Feb. 14.—The verdict in the Ashby case is the tonic of general discussion to-day. The acquittal of the popular young lawyer seems to have given universal satisfaction. It pleased even those who had before the trial expressed an opinion that he should be punished, for the evidence was of such a nature that no other verdict than acquittal was possible.

The evidence of Mrs. Mary W. Garnett, mother-in-law of Mr. Ashby, was the most important, in its effect, offered, and the jury, it is said, was ready to return its verdict when she left the stand. Indeed after the trial some word to this effect was sent Mrs. Garnett.

The scenes at the Garnett-Ashby home last night and this morning were memorable for the family. Hundreds of friends called to offer their congratulations and good wishes.

The splendid conduct of the Marye family throughout the whole sad affair has been the subject of general favorable comment. Nothing finer, perhaps, has ever been known in this part of the State.

A mass-meeting will be held at the Casino next Tuesday night in the interest of the proposed sailors' home that is to be established here by ex-Chief Justice, General O. O. Howard, a prominent retired army officer and president of the Olive Branch of the Y. M. C. A., will be among the speakers.

John Mitchell, the sailors' boarding-house master who was sent to the Federal penitentiary in July 1900 for fornication, has returned to the city, having served his time. His notorious men of the country, and his conviction caused quite a sensation in shipping-house circles at the time.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Feb. 14.—Much interest is taken in the Farmers' Institute to be held in the courthouse here Thursday, February 20th, at 11 o'clock. Mrs. T. S. Jones, of Upper Spotsylvania county, is dead, after an illness of two months of pneumonia. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Broadbush, of Caroline county. She is survived by her husband and three small children. The remains were taken to Caroline county for interment in the family burying ground.

SKULL FRACTURED.
Mr. J. S. Snyder, a merchant of Colonial Beach, went coon hunting with some friends. A coon was located in a tree and the tree was cut down. As it fell, a large limb rebounded, striking Mr. Snyder on the head. It is thought his skull is fractured. He is lying in an unconscious state and fears that he cannot recover are entertained.

Fire destroyed the stable on the property of Mr. James T. Lowery in the lower part of the city. The stock was not in the building at the time, but some harness and provender were consumed. Origin of fire is not known. Partially insured.

The strike of the moulders at the Hunter Plow Works remains unchanged. The men, who demand an increase of fifteen cents a day, declare they will not return to work unless their demands are met and the owners of the plant state that their places will be filled next week by other men, unless they resume their labor by Monday morning at the old wages of $1.25 per day.

These gentlemen have been conducting the Hotel Dannell and also making wine from grapes gathered from their own vineyard, but expect to do business on a larger scale.

An accident occurred on the Piedmont, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad (narrow gauge) which is remarkable for the small amount of damage that resulted. As the train was within two miles of this city, rounding from Orange, a box car jumped the track and rolled down an embankment. The passenger coach was buck in the rear and no one was hurt. The passengers were transferred to a forward freight car and brought to the city. Later, the car was replaced on the track and was found to be but slightly damaged.

Made By Good Roads Train.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., Feb. 14.—Miss Ruth Early received a letter yesterday from the State president of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, telling her that she had recently formed, at Rocky Mount, the "Jubal A. Early" Chapter, named in honor of General Jubal A. Early, of Lynchburg, uncle of Miss Early.

COHEN-WEINSTEN.
Mr. Harry Cohen, a well known young business man of Bluefield, W. Va., and Miss Esther Miriam Weinsten, daughter of Mr. J. Weinsten, of this city, were married here last evening, the ceremony being performed in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends by Rabbi Moses Becker.

Amherst and Campbell counties are making strong bids for the sample of road to be built by the good roads train on which it proposes to improve its road to 10th. Amherst has offered to pay the entire five hundred dollars necessary to get the train, and Campbell has bid four hundred dollars. Campbell has a decided advantage, for the reason that the road which it proposes to improve is just outside the corporate limits of Lynchburg, and it will probably be chosen by the committee having charge of the matter.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.
Mr. C. E. Eberman, local secretary of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, addressed a mass meeting of Christian Endeavorers held at the Methodist Protestant Church last night. He left here for Richmond.

The Abasco Hoe Club, an organization of the younger lawyers of Lynchburg, will give a banquet at Hotel Carroll next week. The programme to be carried out will be a burlesque of the Constitutional Convention. The members of the club will represent prominent members of the convention, and will endeavor to "take off" their characteristics.

Reports will be made by committees, and resolutions will be adopted.

The house was elaborately decorated with potted plants and evergreens. Numerous lighted tapers on the altar and about the beautiful arches added greatly to the scenic effect of the room.

The bride was handsomely gowned in a gray traveling suit, and carried lilacs of the valley.

The maid of honor, Miss Louise Overton, was dressed in pink organdy and carried white roses.

While the wedding selection was playing the bride party entered the room, and the services were impressively performed by Rev. S. O. Southall, of the Farmville Episcopal Church.

LUMBER BARGE BURNED.

The Strange Monster That Eats Dogs in Nansmond.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Feb. 14.—Brinkley and Wilson, young Suffolk men, own a saw mill plant one and one-half miles from Suffolk. Yesterday they finished paying for a barge and started out a cargo of first-class boards. The crew built a fire to keep warm. When near Reid's Ferry, everybody left the craft, forgetting to put out the fire. Later the vessel was adrift. The whole cargo was destroyed and the barge was burned to the water's edge and is useless. There is no insurance at all. The loss is several hundred dollars.

The same firm reports that a sail vessel containing a cargo of lumber had run aground in Nansmond River. The loss and delay are considerable.

The strange Dismal Swamp monster, which one day this week killed seven of Ed. Smith's dogs, ate two of them, and later attacked Mr. Smith himself, has been seen again. Mr. Smith lives about twelve miles from Suffolk. Last night L. Frank Ames, a merchant, who lives near Bennett's Creek, saw the same thing and suffered from its ravages.

Hearing a strange noise, Mr. Ames went out with a pistol. He thought at first it was a strange dog. When he learned it was the much-sought monster Mr. Ames shot several times, but without effect. The thing growled savagely. Being seen after it, six dogs refused to have a conflict and fled in terror. They could not be induced to make an attack. The unknown animal escaped without being harmed.

Afterward it appeared at the home of Henry Jordan, colored, and sat definitely on a covered porch. The description is like the one furnished by Mr. Smith—a large, gaunt form, long yellow hair and vicious eyes.

Why Don't You Seek Relief?

A really healthy woman has little pain or discomfort at the menstrual period. No woman needs to have any. Wine of Cardui will relieve all those smarting menstrual pains and dragging head, back and side aches caused by falling of the womb and irregular menses.

March 29, 1900, Mrs. W. H. Jones, of Cameron, Mo., wrote the following to The Chattanooga Medicine Company: "I ask you for advice for the treatment of my complaint. I hear a great many women in my condition are cured by Wine of Cardui, so I send for the medicine." The medicine was sent with plain directions regarding treatment required, and August 31, 1900, she wrote again: "Perhaps you will remember Mrs. W. H. Jones who wrote to you six months ago asking for advice which you so kindly gave her. I never will be able to thank you enough for it. I suffered terribly at my monthly periods for three years. I would sometimes go for seven months with no flow at all. Now I have my health back again and am expecting to be confined in January. I cannot praise your medicine enough."

WINE OF CARDUI

has brought permanent relief to 1,000,000 women who suffered every month. It makes the menstrual organs strong and healthy and gives women relief from the terrible aches and pains that blight so many homes. The only thing necessary is to seek relief—to go to a drug store and get a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui and take the medicine in the privacy of your own home.

Greenwood, La., October 14, 1900.
I have been very sick for some time. I was taken with a severe pain in my side and could not get any relief until I tried a bottle of Wine of Cardui. Before I had taken all of it I was relieved. I feel ready to say that you have a wonderful medicine.
